

Gabriella Zucco

Education

Master Degree in legal-administrative translation from English into Italian and from Polish into Italian

Courses followed at University of Turin, faculty of law: European Community law, International law, Family law, Private International law

Stagiare as a trainee paid translator at the Italian Division of the European Parliament in Luxembourg

Legal English course at the British Council.

Ca' Foscari University of Venice: Degree with honours in Foreign Languages and Literatures (English and French).

Course of translation and English civilization at Bath English Language School

Course of French language and civilization at the Institute of Alpes-Chambery - FR

Studies of English literature and language at St. Giles' College in London - GB

Work Experience

2008 to date

Translator for the Poly of Turin (translations of scientific materials from Italian into English) and

Translator for private companies and legal firms

PR and Translator for Glam Lab Turin

Qualified full-time teacher of English at Liceo Scientifico Gobetti of Turin, Convitto Nazionale "Umberto I" and

Liceo Massimo D'Azeglio -Turin -

Interpreter for IMA Piemonte (Institute for Marketing Agricultural Products) Region Piedmont

PR and Translator for Cultural Association ArtLabEventi; meeting organizer with LUCI Association

Translator for the Foreign Affairs Office – Rome (translation of documents such as grant agreements)

Teacher of English at SAA - Turin

Assistant and Translator for Solicitor Oran Williams

Translator for ISNOVA (Institute for the Promotion of Technology Innovation), responsible for the relationships with the European Commission in the management of the community activities.

Mothertongue

Italian

Other Languages

Fluent English; fluent French, Basic German and Polish